Entertainment with ROI

Introduced at The Fabulous Showcase Event at the 2005 Event Solutions Idea Factory, Silent DJ won rave reviews! This overnight success led to the formation of its current team, which is now ready to bring Silent DJ to your event. Silent DJ promoters travel across North America to spin cool tunes – without upsetting the neighbors!

How can we startle and intrigue our attendees?

If you consider having one out of four couples in the world who deliver an amazing “mind-over-matter” psychic performance to be unique entertainment, then you’re looking for Larry and Raven.

The basis of this interactive presentation, which will give your intended audience something it has never seen before, has been handed down through generations of husband and wife teams. Larry and Raven’s Mentalists always leave a crowd wondering, “How did they do that?” But the added mystique of a husband and wife team gives the performance additional impact.

thought-reading act is laced with humor and is guaranteed to capture the attention of your clients’ guests. Larry interacts with the crowd, while Raven, blindfolded, identifies items ranging from names and birthdays to serial numbers on currency. Their second-sight act includes their take on “The Georgia Magnet,” which leaves guests talking for weeks after the event!

Larry and Raven weave corporate messages, product launches and/or team building into the pattern of their performance, assuring lasting memories of your event.
